Présentation

Njoki's practice focuses on Dispute Resolution and Recoveries.

Persuasive, innovative, insightful, goal-focused litigator and a rising star in matters litigation are the words which best describe Njoki. That is why she has been entrusted with complex and high value commercial, tax, procurement and employment disputes.

For instance, Njoki is currently representing KCB Bank in a Kshs 500 million tax dispute against Kenya Revenue Authority. She is also assisting Daniel Musyoka in defending a developer and counterclaiming against the contractor in a construction dispute before an arbitral tribunal. The value of the dispute is over Kshs 300 Million.
